

Speaking Rubric

	★	★ ★	★ ★ ★
Volume	You spoke at a good volume some of the time. Most of the time you were speaking too loudly or quietly.	You spoke at a good volume for most of the time. Most of the people could hear what you were saying. Some parts were too loud or quiet.	You spoke at a good volume the entire time. Everyone could hear what you were saying and it wasn't too loud or quiet.
Speed	You spoke at a good pace some of the time. Most of the time you were speaking too quickly or slowly making it hard to listen to you.	You spoke at a good pace most of the time. Some of the time you were speaking too quickly or too slowly.	You spoke at a good pace the entire time. It was easy to understand what you were saying and you didn't speak too quickly or slowly.
Voice	You could have used your voice better. You spoke at only one tone and didn't use emphasis in your voice.	You used your voice confidently most of the time. You started to use some expression to add interest and emphasis to what you were saying.	You used your voice confidently the whole time and used expression to add interest and emphasis to what you were saying.
Eye Contact	You had eye contact with your audience some of the time. Most of the time you were looking away or at your notes.	You had eye contact with your audience most of the time. You were beginning to move your eyes around so you weren't always looking at one person.	You had eye contact with your audience the entire time. You made sure you moved your eyes around so you weren't always looking at one person.
Content	You used fillers such as "um", "and", and "er" a lot during your demonstration and your instructions were hard to follow.	You gave good instructions throughout your demonstration and at times you used words such as "um" and "and" to fill your sentences.	You gave specific instructions throughout your demonstration that were in a good order, made sense and were easy to follow.
Body Language	You could have used better body language. Most of the time you were leaning on something or fidgeting.	You had good body language most of the time. Some of the time you were fidgeting or leaning on something.	You had good body language the whole time. You were standing up straight and confidently and you didn't fidget or lean.