

Making Negatives

Add not or no to these sentences to make them mean the opposite.

- 1.He is playing football tomorrow.
- 2.We are working hard at school today.
- 3.There are naughty boys and girls at Parson Street!
- 4.This is a good picture.
- 5.We are reading a good book in class.
- 6.There was snow in February.

Making positives

Now take not and no out of these sentences to make them mean the opposite.

- 1.A lion is not a dangerous animal.
- 2.England are not going to win the World Cup this year.
- 3.Homework is not good for me.
- 4.There are no kind children in Year 4.
- 5.There are no bears living in Bedminster.
- 6.I am not looking forward to the holidays.

