Making sentences.

We can improve sentences by:
- adding two words to describe the noun;
- adding a few words telling how, where and why.

The fox ran.

The sly, old fox ran quickly into the wood because Farmer White shot at him.

Add to the sentences below to make them more interesting:

A
1. The baby smiled.

2. The girls danced.

3. The boys shouted.

4. The lady walked.

5. The dogs barked.

6. The sun shone.

7. The river flowed.

8. The kettle boiled.

9. The cows grazed.

10. The firefighters hurried.

B
1. The birds sang.

2. The man worked.

3. The pupils helped.

4. The band played.

5. The clock chimed.

6. The donkey brayed.

7. The snails crawled.

8. The police searched.

9. The aeroplane rose.

10. The thief ran.