

Speech Marks.

We put speech marks around whatever is said in a sentence.
The speaker's first word always begins with a capital letter.
A comma separates the speaker's words from the rest of the sentence.

Put speech marks in these sentences:

1. Mother asked where are you going?
2. I am going to the park said Peter.
3. Susan said to me I am hungry.
4. So am I replied Paul.
5. The policewoman said what is your name?
6. Stuart Hirst answered the boy.
7. Will you take me across the road? asked the old man.
8. Certainly said the kind lady.
9. Please move along the bus said the driver.
10. A return ticket to Bacup please asked the girl.
11. Aunt Sally asked Uncle Joe how are you?
12. I am very well thank you he replied.

Complete the sentences below:

1. My friend whispered, “_____”
2. “_____,” demanded the robber.
3. The bully growled, “_____”
4. “_____,” the doctor ordered.