One day Phil and Leon went to the canal. They were going fishing. There seemed to be no-one else around. They chose the best place. They started to get out the rods. Then there was a loud splash. Then there was a scream. Phil and Leon looked up. They saw something moving in the water. Then they saw a hand waving. Someone had fallen in the water.

2. This next sentence is all one sentence. See if you can improve it by splitting it into separate sentences.

Like all animals, human beings need food in order to live because every part of the body needs a steady supply of food so that it can work properly, but first the food has to be broken down through a process called digestion so that it can dissolve in the blood and travel around the body.
