

Writing Levels

What level do you think this piece of writing is?

Can you justify your level?

Level 4

Does this piece of writing use commas to show clauses and move around information in a sentence? Yes  No

Does it use harder connectives (however, therefore, such as)? Give examples

Does it use new speaker, new line for dialogue? Yes  No

Is it in clear, logical paragraphs? Yes  No

Does it have a range of adjectives and punctuation to describe things and make it sound interesting (brackets, colons, ellipses, dash)?

Yes  No  Give examples

If it is a story does it have a clear beginning, middle and end with lots of details? Yes  No

If it is not a story does it have layout features? (like sub-headings) Yes  No

Are sentences started in different ways? Yes  No  Are similes used? Yes  No

Examples

Are adverbs and noun phrases used to make it interesting and add detail (quickly ran, slowly walked, golden coins glistening brightly, flickering candle light )

Yes  No  Examples

Does it have detail to describe settings and characters clearly?

Yes  No

Is it interesting and will it engage the reader? Yes  No

Does it have interesting sentence types, e.g. One word sentences for effect? Yes  No

Is most of it spelt correctly? Yes  No

Is handwriting neat and joined up and changed to suit the text (capitals)? Yes  No

