

Choose a number from the circle and a number from the triangle to multiply together. Write your multiplications in your maths book.

Choose a number from the circle and a number from the triangle to multiply together. Write your multiplications in your maths book.

Choose a number from the circle and a number from the triangle to multiply together. Write your multiplications in your maths book.